

EGX Sustainability Foundation Celebrates International Day for Charity

Dr. Mohamed Farid, Executive chairman of The Egyptian Exchange (EGX), heads of civil society activities in Egypt and EGX Sustainability Foundation Board of Trustees celebrated the International Day for Charity with a ringing of Bell ceremony opening EGX's trading session. The event was attended by Prof. Mahmoud El-Matini, President of Ain Shams University Specialized Hospitals, Dr. Heba ElSewedy, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Ahl Masr, Mr. Ihab Farouk, President of Shubra El-Khair Association, and Mr. Mohsen Mahgoub from Misr El-Khair Foundation and in the presence of the Board of Trustees of EGX Sustainability foundation.

Dr. Mohamed Farid, EGX Chairman and the chairman of EGX Sustainability Foundation, signed 4 cooperation protocols with the participating entities; Ahl Masr Hospital, Ain Shams University Specialized Hospitals, Misr El Kheir Foundation, and Shubra El-Khair Association to enhance their activities in supporting the Egyptian government to achieve comprehensive development for all Egyptians.

During the opening session, the attendees thanked the Board of Trustees of EGX Sustainability foundation for their support, which helps them expand the base of their community work, as well as the beneficiaries of the activities of their associations.

EGX Sustainability Foundation is keen to support the civil associations' efforts for the community's development allowing them to do their role to the society in the best possible way.

